DETAILED ACTION

The following action is in response to application 10/553,415 filed on September 19, 2006.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed October 17, 2005 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 6-9 and 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Abe '772 (from IDS). With regard to claim 6, Abe teaches a method for operating a motor vehicle having an internal combustion engine 1, an automatic start/stop device 10 for the internal combustion engine, a controllable brake device 31 by means of which a braking torque can be applied to the motor vehicle, and a brake pedal 15 which can be activated by a vehicle driver; wherein the brake device is actuated by a control device in an automatic stop phase of the internal combustion engine as a function of a degree of activation of the brake pedal (page 2), and the control device can increase the braking torque independently of the degree of activation of the brake pedal (page 3); said method comprising: the control device determining a threshold value F1 as a function of at least one of state variables and operating variables of the motor vehicle (PP39), before the brake device is actuated; at the start of and during an automatic stop phase of the internal combustion engine S101, the control device checking whether a currently acting braking torque is smaller than the threshold value S104; and when there is a positive result of the check, the control device increasing the brake torque to a value which is greater than or equal to the threshold value S105. With regard to claim 7, Abe teaches the method, wherein the control device determines the threshold value as a function of environmental variables before the brake device is actuated (PP39). With regard to claims 8 and 9, Abe teaches the method wherein the control device: determines a specific braking torque which is necessary to stop the motor vehicle; and sets the aforesaid threshold value to a value which is greater than or equal to the specific braking torque (PP39). With regard to claims 13-16, Abe teaches the method, wherein the control device increases the braking torque before the internal combustion engine starts S105/S107.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Kamiya, Jager, Moriya, Maruyama, Hara and Morimoto have been cited to show similar controls.

FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION

Submission of your response by facsimile transmission is encouraged. The central facsimile number is (571) 273-8300. Recognizing the fact that reducing cycle time in the processing and examination of patent applications will effectively increase a patent's term, it is to your benefit to submit responses by facsimile transmission whenever permissible. Such submission will place the response directly in our examining group's hands and will eliminate Post Office processing and delivery time as well as the PTO's mail room processing and delivery time. For a complete list of correspondence not permitted by facsimile transmission, see MPEP 502.01. In general, most responses and/or amendments not requiring a fee, as well as those requiring a fee but charging such fee to a deposit account, can be submitted by facsimile transmission. Responses requiring a fee which applicant is paying by check should not be submitting by facsimile transmission separately from the check.

Responses submitted by facsimile transmission should include a Certificate of Transmission (MPEP 512). The following is an example of the format the certification might take:

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being facsimile transmitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (Fax No. (571) 273-8300) on _____ (Date)

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate:

_____

If your response is submitted by facsimile transmission, you are hereby reminded that the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity (37 CFR 1.4 and MPEP 502.02). Please do not separately mail the original or another copy unless required by the Patent and Trademark Office. Submission of the original response or a follow-up copy of the response after your response has been transmitted by facsimile will only cause further unnecessary delays in the processing of your application; duplicate responses where fees are charged to a deposit account may result in those fees being charged twice.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Roger L. Pang whose telephone number is 571-272-7096. The examiner can normally be reached on 5:30am to 4:00pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Charles Marmor can be reached on 571-272-7095. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
